INTERDEPARTMENTAL COVER SUPPORT
TO OPERATION NIMBUS

I. PREVIOUS COVER PLAN

25X1A

This document supersedes previous Cover Plan ☐ 3525-64/N1 which should be removed from the files and destroyed.

II. OPERATIONAL OBJECTIVE:

The objective of Operation NIMBUS is photographic and electronic reconnaissance of selected military and intelligence targets on the Island of Cuba. The instrument to be used to accomplish the objective is the U-2 aircraft.

III. GENERAL OPERATIONAL COVER PLAN

During recent months, the United States has intensified its surveillance of the whole Caribbean area in order to acquire up-to-the-minute information on the nature and extent of the Communist build-up. The Strategic Air Command is flying normal surveillance missions in support of this objective, using U-2 aircraft.

The above plan principally applies when the U-2 is located, or involved in an incident, outside the U. S. continental limits. For training/staging base activities and for emergency landings at bases within the continental United States, there is an alternate story as indicated in paragraphs V, B & C below.

IV. FOR PURPOSES OF THIS OPERATION THE FOLLOWING AREAS ARE CONSIDERED TO BE:

A. Hostile:

Cuba

D. Incident over Hostile Territory (See IV., A)

1. Cover Story

In this instance, the pilot is under strict instructions to destroy the aircraft at sea, with one exception. If he is within emergency landing distance of the Guantanamo Naval Base he will head offshore, contact the base by prearranged signal, which will scramble a fighter escort, and land at Guantanamo from the direction of the open sea.

If he falls into the hands of Castro forces, he will repeat the story given in paragraph V., E below. If queried by these forces, he may state that he was engaged in peripheral surveillance, but will deny overflight. In response to questions regarding his physical presence in Cuba, he will state that he was attacked while on a regular peripheral surveillance mission, parachuted from his aircraft, and drifted inland.

2. Responsible Action Office

Department of State (Mr. Hillman)
